

POPULATION GROWTH

Southeast Michigan

Population Growth Forecast 2005-2035

- ◆ The seven-county Southeast Michigan region is projected to experience an overall increase in population of more than 3% over the next 30 years.
- ◆ Oakland County is projected to have the largest actual population gain with 122,280 new residents by 2035.
- ◆ With a projected 134% increase the fastest growth is projected to be among residents aged 65-years-old and above.
- ◆ The number of new households in Oakland County is projected to increase by nearly 16% over this period, compared to 9% for the Southeast Michigan region.

Source: SEMCOG
Updated: September 2009